

IISS Center for Professional Development and Training

General admission requirement

- Basic Comprehension of English Language
- Certificate, Diploma or Degree from recognized university or college in any discipline
- Applicants without above academic qualifications should have at least 1 security experience in the security agencies, private security establishment, NGO or private organization.

Restrictions:

Prior security clearance is required for admission into Level 1, 2 and 3 restricted courses.

Members of approved government security agencies are exempt from vetting. The Institute however reserves the right to conduct further on all applicants irrespective of employment in public sector security organization. All other applicants shall be subjected to vetting and background checks prior to admission into the course.

Application Procedure:

Individual applicants should fill the online form obtainable at Institute website (www.iissgh.org).

Organizations applying for in-house bespoke training for their staff should apply directly by email and should be addressed to:

Directing Staff and Head of Training
P.O. Box 2327, Achimota-Accra
info@iissgh.org

Required documents

- Completed enrolment form
- Completed sponsorship form (for employer sponsored applicants)
- Completed referee form
- Cv
- Copies of educational/professional certificates
- Photocopy of national I.D, passport or driver License
- 2 recent passport size photo

Award: After passing the required assessments, trainees will be issued with a Professional Certificate or Diploma recognized by Council for technical and Vocational Education and Training (COTVET) of Ministry of Education.

Course Instructors

Seasoned professionals drawn from the intelligence community, security and law enforcement.

Mode of Instruction: Physical attendance or Online options

National Security Awareness Course

Restriction Level: None

Course Content

- Introduction to National Security
- Concepts and Dimensions of National Security
- Threats to National Security
- National Security Strategy
- National Security Architecture
- Introduction to Intelligence
- Sources of Intelligence
- Collection Methods
- National Security Intelligence Model
- Intelligence and National Security
- Terrorism and Violent Extremism

Target participants

- Personnel of intelligence and security agencies
- Private Security Organizations licensed by Ministry of Interior
- Senior and Middle level staff of Corporate Organizations
- International organizations.
- Individuals interested in national security and intelligence affairs

Course duration: 24 Hr (3 weekends-Saturdays Only). Lectures are conducted from 8:30 pm to 05:00pm.

Course date: First week in February, May, August and November

Course fee: Ghc750 (Online) or Ghc1000 Face-face

Basic Intelligence Course

Restriction Level: 1

Course Content

- Introduction to Intelligence and Intelligence History
- National Security Intelligence Model (NSIM)
- Intelligence Community
- Intelligence Cycle
- Intelligence Sources
- Collection methods
- Surveillance and Countersurveillance
- Investigation
- Protective Security
- Intelligence Reporting Standards
- Intelligence Ethics, Law and Oversight
- Terrorism and Counterterrorism

Target participants

- Personnel of intelligence and security agencies
- Private Security Organizations licensed by Ministry of Interior
- Senior and Middle level staff of Corporate Organizations
- International organizations.
- Individuals interested in national security and intelligence affairs

Course duration

Option A: 40Hr (5-day course: Monday-Friday)

Option B: 40 Hr (3 weekend course: Fridays and Saturdays)

Course date: Fourth week in March, June, Sept and December

Course fee: Ghc1800 Online or Ghc2200 face-face

Intelligence Operations Course

Restriction Level: 2

Course Content

- Introduction to Intelligence and Intelligence History
- National Security Intelligence Model (NSIM)
- Intelligence Community
- Intelligence Cycle
- Intelligence Sources and Collection methods
- Espionage, Sabotage and Subversion
- Human Intelligence
- Agent Handling and Informant Management
- Target Penetration
- Surveillance and Counter-surveillance
- Counterintelligence
- Propaganda, Lies and Deception
- Protective Security
- Investigation
- Intelligence Reporting Standards
- Intelligence Ethics, Law and Oversight
- Terrorism and Counterterrorism

Target participants

- Personnel of intelligence and security agencies
- Private Security Organizations licensed by Ministry of Interior
- Security Managers and Supervisors of Corporate Organizations

Course duration

Option A: 40Hr (5-day course: Monday-Friday)

Option B: 40 Hr (3 weekend course: Fridays and Saturdays)

Course date: First week in March, June, Sept and December

Course fee: Ghc2500 (face-face only)

IISS Professional Career Development Program is a joint project by a Consortium of subject matter specialists from IISS Center for Professional Development and Training, Doyen Institute of Intelligence and Investigations and International Association of Law Enforcement Intelligence Analysts-Ghana Chapter